

APPLICATION: SCHOLARLY THESIS

This completed application is due to the Graduate Director no later than the second week of the semester.

Student name: _____

To write a scholarly thesis, you must have:

1. A minimum 3.5 GPA in coursework completed in the program.
2. Completed 8 graduate courses (24 credits) with all incompletes removed.

Please list all literature courses you have taken or plan to take in the graduate program at Rutgers-Camden:

In what term and year do you plan to complete your degree?

If your plan to write a thesis is approved, the following timetable is in effect:

1. Secure approval of faculty advisor and second reader in the semester before you are to begin work.
2. Submit to faculty advisor and second reader your formal proposal and an annotated bibliography by the fourth week of the semester.
3. Submit to faculty advisor and second reader the draft of your thesis by October 30 (in fall) or March 15 (in spring).
4. Submit to faculty advisor, second reader, and graduate director your final thesis by November 30 (in fall) or April 30 (in spring).

Signature of student: _____ Date: _____

Signature of faculty advisor: _____ Date: _____

Signature of second reader: _____ Date: _____

THIS FORM MUST BE RETURNED BY THE SECOND WEEK OF THE SEMESTER TO:
Dr. Ellen Malenas Ledoux, Director of Graduate Study English Department Rutgers University
Camden, NJ 08102