

APPLICATION: UPPER-LEVEL UNDERGRADUATE COURSE FOR GRADUATE CREDIT

This completed application is due to the Graduate Director for approval no later than the end of the first week of the semester.

In order to take an upper-level (300-400 level) undergraduate course for graduate credit, you must have permission from the instructor of the course in advance. As a student in the course you will be expected to complete assignments commensurate with what is required in a graduate-level course, including, but not limited to, a substantial research paper or an original portfolio (for work in digital humanities, rhetoric, linguistics, or creative writing).

You may count a maximum of six (6) credits of undergraduate work towards the ten (10) courses required for the Masters Degree.

Student Name: _____

RUID: _____ Telephone: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Semester: _____ Course Number: _____

Explanation for request: _____

Approval of Course Instructor: _____ Date: _____

Approval of Graduate Director _____ Date: _____

Upon approval, a special permission number for the course will be issued.

PLEASE RETURN THIS COMPLETED FORM TO:

Dee Jonczak
Secretary, Department of English
432 Armitage Hall